Altar Wine For OLPH – We would like to begin a schedule for parishioners to take turns purchasing a box of wine for our Eucharistic Celebrations at Mass. A box generally lasts 2-3 months. If you are able, please call the parish office, 692-3911, or see Annette Lapierre or Mary Wied for what kind of wine Thank you.

Family Perspective –.The widow in today's gospel gave only a little, but it counted for a lot. In our homes, there are many LITTLE MOMENTS, which can have great significance and glue the family together. Seize the moments.

OLPH's Coffee Hour--If you are interested in hosting Coffee Hour after Sunday Mass, please see sign-up sheet on  bulletin board in Seton Hall. All that is required to bring is any type of light snack, such as cheese and crackers, veggies and dip, etc. You may bring baked or store bought goodies. Coffee, milk and sugar are provided by church. There is also the option to donate to the coffee can during Coffee Hour and someone will make sure to provide for Sundays that no one signed up for.

Winner of OLPH's 50/50 for November was Joe Peri. Congratulations!

OLPH's 50/50 raffle tickets are sold every Sunday before Mass. Someone is always at the table in vestibule selling tickets for $1. Drawing is once a month and proceeds are split between winner and our parish.

More God, Less Guilt A book by Dan Tarrant Parish Code: CFMRYR

What if your mistakes don't shock, surprise or embarrass God? What if God knows all of your flaws and still wants you in Heaven? What if instead of perfection, what God needs from you is your heart?

Is the Good News really that good? Yes, it is!

Come discover that the Good News may be better than you think and that Catholic guilt isn't Catholic at all.

Perhaps the greatest miracle in all of Christianity is simply the miracle of a person coming to believe in grace. It's a miracle that can happen to you. Will you let it?

You weren't built for guilt. You were built for grace. Come step into the life God always intended you to have.
