Reminders for Winter Assistance for our elderly friends, neighbors, and grandparents during this winter season due to the challenges of weather and covid.

...Generally we can give a friendly visit or phone call or a helping hand.

Often a thinking of you card with a note can be a source of encouragement.

...Definite actions need some planning.(picking up everyday groceries such as milk, bread, eggs etc..

You may wish to drop off a book, a puzzle or perhaps a magazine.

...Our helping hands can keep walkways, steps and porches free of snow and ice

...Our helping hands may be able to pick up stamps or personal items. Often garbage cans need to be put out to the curb and that can be a challenge. Reminder: Energy savings with Cornell Cooperative Extension

Life Challenges - Dec. 7 - 2 pm. exploring parkinson disease...

A Family Perspective- Families feed the hungry, give drinks to thirsty toddlers and welcome strangers and even estranged relatives into our homes. We clothe children and visit family members who are sick and imprisoned. The routine actions of family life are religious and priestly for we make Christ present in what we do.
Family life is Beatitude life.
