A Family Perspective - Like the vine grower on today's gospel, parents must "prune and cleanse" the branches in their family if their children are going to be rooted. Discipline, limits and setting goals are a necessary part of parenting so our children will grow and "bear fruit."

Vocation View: "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit." Just like the vine and the branches need each other in order to produce much fruit, our relationship with Christ nourishes us and brings us life. Is your spiritual relationship with Christ fruitful? If you are considering such a vocation, call Father Jason Hage (315) 470-1468 or write: vocations@syrdio.org.

A Note From Fr. Doug: My dear Parish family, first and foremost I want to thank you for the powerful farewell Easter Sunday. Your prayers and your love have touched me deeply! All of you have been an important part of my life. All of you have helped me to grow stronger in the kingdom of God. I also want to thank each and everyone of you for all the wonderful socks. It has been a joy to be able to wear clean socks every morning since Easter and not have to worry about dirty socks. In particular, I love all the different socks that are of watches and clocks. I am sure that they are symbolic of the beautiful way that I always kept Irish time. 😊
You are always in my prayers and one day we will all join together around the table of our God in the kingdom of heaven.
Love and prayers, Fr. Doug
