

The background of the entire page is a composite image. The top half shows a dark blue night sky filled with stars and a prominent, glowing nebula or galaxy structure. The bottom half shows a calm body of water reflecting the sky. A small sailboat with two sails is visible on the left side of the water, its reflection clearly visible below it. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

A Family Perspective- It must have been difficult for Zebedee to watch his sons walk away and follow Jesus. It was the end of "Zebedee and Sons Fishing, Inc." Our children were never ours. They are only on loan to us. We raise them to let them go.

Gospel Reflection - If you are interested and willing to share your thoughts on the Gospel passage for the front page of the bulletin, please contact Peg at porzel10@yahoo.com. We write on a rotation basis about once every six weeks. Dates are scheduled well in advance so you have time to prepare.

Vocation View: Jesus said to them, "Come after me and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him (cf. MK 1:14-20). Drop your nets and see how the Lord will transform your life. Are you ready to follow? Call Fr. Jason Hage (315)470-1468 or write: vocations@syrdio.org.

THE CATHOLIC FAITH.

January 26th- Memorial of Sts. Timothy and Titus, bishops

St. Timothy, born in Galatia in Asia Minor, was baptized and later ordained to the priesthood by St. Paul. The young Galatian became Paul's missionary companion and his most beloved spiritual son. St. Paul showed his trust in this disciple by consecrating him bishop of the great city of Ephesus. St. Timothy was stoned to death thirty years after St. Paul's martyrdom for having denounced the worship of the goddess Diana. In the 1962 Missal, St. Timothy's feast is celebrated on January 24 and the feast of St. Titus is on February 6.

St. Titus, a convert from paganism, was a fellow laborer of St. Paul on many apostolic missions. St. Paul later made him bishop of Crete, a difficult charge because of the character of the inhabitants and the spread of erroneous doctrines on that island. St. Paul's writings tell us that St. Titus rejoiced to discover what was good in others and drew the hearts of men by his wide and affectionate sympathy.
